Usage Licenses

Every portrait package offered by Caspian Summer includes a personal use license for both digital and print on all finished portraits delivered to you.

Personal Use License - Grants the contract holder and the subject the right to use the finished portraits provided to them digitally on their personal websites, their personal computers/tablets /phones, or their personal social media. They may have their finished portraits printed at the printing place of their choice and send said prints to relatives, friends, or keep them for personal viewing. The personal use license also allows for portraits to be used in yearbooks. The personal use license does not cover use on business websites, business social media, use on/in any product that will be sold, use in newspaper/magazine/journal articles, or use in any other business/sales associated way.

It is possible for you to purchase commercial, editorial, or exclusive use licenses from Caspian Summer.

Commercial Use License - Grants the contract holder and the subject the right to use the finished portraits provided to them to sell a product, be used in a product that will be sold (a book, a disc, a magazine cover, etc.), or be utilized to represent a business.

Editorial Use License - Grants the contract holder and the subject the right to use the finished portraits provided to them in a newspaper, journal, or magazine article, a staff page for a non-profit, etc.

Exclusive Use License - This option must be discussed in person with the contract holder, the subject, Kara Stevens, and any involved third parties present.

Prices for each of these licenses must be discussed between the contract holder, the subject of the portraits, Caspian Summer, and any involved third parties.
